

One of the goals of the The African Peace and Conflict Network (APCN) is to provide a neutral forum for the education and dissemination of the current state of research and practice in conflict analysis, resolution, and training to a wide audience. To continuously meet these goals we often have the pleasure to share previously published works that help expand our knowledge base as well as provide a new forum for scholars and practitioners operating in the field.

It is our pleasure to offer the following articles originally published in The Journal of Alternative Perspectives in the Social Sciences (JAPSS). JAPSS provides scholars and practitioners a multidisciplinary forum for the deliberation of ideas on global social problems and is distributed for free electronically. APCN would like to thank them and the authors for allowing us to republish. You can access JAPSS here: <http://www.japss.org/>
